Reconciling Rainforests And Hydrocarbons Resources: The Impact Of Climate Change Initiatives On Petroleum Operations In Gabon

Gabon has emerged as a strong voice for climate action in Africa and has ratified several international climate change treaties. The deeply-forested Central African nation of Gabon contributes a mere 0.04% to the world's greenhouse gas (GhG) emissions and is a net carbon absorber. However, it remained the seventh largest oil producer in Africa in [...]

Global Faith Partners Launches Welder Training Program For $30 Billion LNG Plant in Tanzania

USA-based nonprofit organization, Global Faith Partners (GFP), has announced its launch of a skilled workers training program in Tanzania to provide local content for projects that are developing the country's deep water natural gas assets and shaping Tanzania's future as an East African energy hub. The program, announced by Michael J. Vallez, P.E., MBA and [...]

Outcomes of the Africa Oil & Gas Local Content Sustainability Summit

African petroleum producing countries came together to focus on the transfer of the technologies, the human resources and local supplier development to address the inefficient redistribution of oil wealth and the many conflicts that ensue. Read more about the outcomes from the ALCSS 2019 here Africa Local Content Summit 2019
